INTERN COMPENSATION DISCLAIMER

At a National AIA Board of Directors Meeting on May 3-4, 1995, the following policy was adopted:

"Any architect desiring to promote or be promoted by the AIA through awards programs, publications, speaking engagements, elected or appointed office, or admission to Fellowship, must declare that they themselves and/or their firm does not employ unpaid intern architects in their professional practice."

At a Council Meeting of the Western Mountain Region/AIA meeting on May 10, 1996, the following policy was adopted:

"Any architect desiring to promote or be promoted by the AIA/Western Mountain Region through awards programs, publications, speaking engagements, elected or appointed office, or admission to Fellowship, must declare that he/she or his/her firm does not employ unpaid interns in their professional practice, an intern being defined as an architecture graduate prior to licensure, a working architecture student, or an architecture student working for credit."

At an AIA Arizona Board Meeting on June 28, 1996, the following policy was adopted:

"Any architect desiring to promote or be promoted by AIA Arizona through awards programs, publications, speaking engagements, elected or appointed office, or admission to Fellowship, must declare that he/she or his/her firm does not employ unpaid interns in their professional practice, an intern being defined as an architecture graduate prior to licensure, a working architecture student, or an architecture student working for credit."

Award applicants must sign the following statement when making an AIA Arizona Design Award submission:

I declare that I do not employ unpaid interns, nor does any firm of which I am an owner or manager.
